

Contact us today
to host a showing of The Forgotten Refugees for your friends and neighbors.

THE FORGOTTEN REFUGEES

In 1945 there were up to one million Jews living in the Middle East and North Africa outside the Palestine Mandate many living in communities dating back more than three millennia.

Today, there are several thousand.

Who are these Jews?
What precipitated their mass-exodus in the 20th century?
Where did they go?
And why don't we know their stories?